From Darrel's Desk

Any church survives through the efforts of its volunteers. Although we have a paid staff (full-time or part-time) of a minister, a secretary and custodians, those people cannot do all of the work of the church.

Clay City Christian Church does not just survive through the efforts of her volunteers; she thrives through the efforts of her volunteers.

Some of our volunteers have regular assignments. They teach Sunday School classes, lead youth groups, play musical instruments, sing in the choir, lead worship services, serve on the church board, provide shepherding for the people of the church, serve on committees and so much more. We rely on these willing volunteers and we come to count on them so much that sometimes, we almost take them for granted.

But then there are times when people step up to meet a specific need at a specific moment. Often this sort of service goes unnoticed and unrecognized because a servant quietly, and without fanfare, simply saw something that needed to be done and did it.

In this month when we celebrate Valentine's Day, I want to say "thanks" from my heart, to all of our volunteers. Thanks to all of you who fill regular assignments. And thanks, also, to all of you who step in when you see a need.

BIRTHDAYS AND ANNIVERSARIES

- 4 Frances Harris
- 6 Jeff Cockerel
- 20 Bill & Evelyn Pierce
- 27 Karl Herdes
- 28 Mike & Karen Delonshaw

The Church Board has decided to make copies of our former church hymnal available to the church family. If you would like one, stop by the church office and select your copy/copies before the end of February.

I would like to thank God for hearing everyone's prayers. He delivered my boys, Mick & Steven, safely through very dense fog and drizzle so their "Mommy" could finally relax and get a little rest. May God bless all those who offered up prayers on behalf of my family and me. They were answered. I would also like to say how much it means to me to feel the love and support of Mike, my sons and their families, my brother Dan and Mary, whom I consider a sister, Kathy my sister and my ministers, Darrel & Sandy. I am so blessed! May God bless you all.

Advance Notice: On Saturday, March 8th, we will be hosting Bob Monts to lead a teacher training workshop. This is for all current teachers and youth workers plus any who want to learn to teach.

Thank you for your donations to the orphanage at Myanmar. $242.00 was raised to help pay for a better home for the children. If throughout the year you would like to donate to this ministry please contact me. 100% of your money is used. Thanks again,

Kim Travis

Thanks to the people who helped put together The Communicator this year. And thank you to the Wednesday night volunteers who help with the newsletter each month. I appreciate you all.

Sandy
