Freedom Isn't Free
words and music by Randy Whitehead

We must all remember,
freedom isn't free
I will always keep in mind, someone died for me Blood was shed so we could have marvelous liberty
We must all remember,
freedom isn't free.

In the haunts of ages past history records
How the men so valiant went to their rewards Some fought off the British to make this land their own Some men fought their brothers, the war destroyed their home.

Winding through the depths of time,
We can still recall Viet Nam, Korea, where our flag stood tall Flanders' field, the Middle East, paddies filled with rice Men who stood in bravery believed and paid the price.
