From Darrel's Desk

May I introduce a new friend to you? My new friend is Matt Bryan. Matt is a graduate of Salem (IL) Community High School, Kaskaskia College (with an Associates degree with an emphasis in music) and St. Louis Christian College (with a Bachelor's degree with an emphasis in Bible and Music). And Matt is the newest member of our church staff. On Sunday evening, February 8, the Joint Board of Elders and Deacons extended a call to Matt to become our youth minister. Matt is serving us in a part-time capacity until we can afford to offer him a full-time wage.

With Matt's call, we embark on a new phase of youth ministry at CCCC. Matt is not replacing anyone. Each of our volunteers will continue to work with our youth. Caralyn Riley, who has been youth director at CCCC for a number of years, is particularly excited to begin this new phase of youth work in which she will be serving with Matt to minister to our kids.

I do not need to worry about your welcoming and encouraging Matt. That is just the nature of Clay City Christian Church. But I do want to challenge you to help us get to the point that we can hire Matt full-time so he can devote all of his energies to ministering to our youth. Matt is a good man and I know you will be proud to have him on our staff. You will also find that he will do an exceptional job with our youth. Let's free him up to do even more with them... for the benefit of our kids and for the glory of God.

Pastor Brandon and the ladies of your church -

I want to thank you all for the hospitality and kindness you all showed us during the time of my dear cousin, Ed Craig's, death. Pastor, your words were so comforting to us and ladies, we all raved about the delicious home-cooked food. May the Lord continue to bless your ministries.

March 8th

Many thanks for the kindness shown in the passing of Jesse Turner. A special thanks to Lou Anna and Karen for putting the dinner together on such short notice. Thank you to the ladies who brought food. It was delicious and very much appreciated. Thank you to whoever is responsible for cleaning the lot and sidewalks. It was wonderful. A special thanks to Darrel for all he did in getting the church ready to move the service over from the funeral home, running the sound system, putting back the tables and chairs and everything else that had to be done. Everything was perfect. Your kindness and support will never be forgotten.

Wanda & Rocky Greenwood

Thank you for hosting the luncheon after Mom's funeral last week. We are most grateful.
