From Darrel's Desk

How much money is enough? A reporter asked John D. Rockefeller that question in the 1920s and Rockefeller famously replied, "Just a little bit more."

You may not have Rockefeller's wealth or his audacity of phrase. But you still must ask the question, "How much money is enough?"

In the Model Prayer (typically called The Lord's Prayer), Jesus taught his disciples to pray: "Give us this day our daily bread." That's a great prayer. And I am not saying that Just because Jesus is the one who taught it. It is also a great prayer because of its historical and theological context.

Jesus borrowed that theme from an earlier wise man. In Proverbs 30:8b-9, you can read a previous prayer:

*Give me neither poverty nor riches,
but give me only my daily bread.
Otherwise, I may have too much and disown you and say, 'Who is the LORD?'
Or I may become poor and steal, and so dishonor the name of my God. (Proverbs 30:8b-9)*

There is a reason to pray for our daily bread and neither more nor less. As Proverbs says, if we receive too much, we may forget about the God who has given it. And if we do not have enough, we may commit illegal and immoral acts because of our desperation.

I would suggest that if you have sufficient for today, you have just enough reason to give thanks.

The Youth Group would like to thank everyone for the baked goods and the donations. God knows how much we needed for the ICTC. "We made our quota". Thanks again.

Thank you for helping in the kitchen at Oil Belt Camp. We are so blessed to have this amazing fellowship with co-laborers in God's kingdom. God bless.
Jerry & Jeannie

Thank you so very much for allowing us to be a part of your revival. We hope you enjoyed it as much as we did, and, more importantly, were "revived" as we were! We'll keep you in our prayers as we could see great things in your future!
Nathan & Mary Jesse

ALSO - our thanks to whomever donated the new microwave for the church kitchen. It was first noticed on Monday, October 27th.
